

Notice of Privacy Incident
AmeriHealth HMO, Inc. and AmeriHealth Insurance Company of New Jersey ("AmeriHealth")
September 17, 2018

On July 19, 2018, the AmeriHealth HMO, Inc. and AmeriHealth Insurance Company of New Jersey ("AmeriHealth") Privacy Office was notified that certain member information may have been accessible for unauthorized viewing. We quickly launched an investigation to determine the nature and scope of this incident, working with a leading forensics investigation firm to confirm what happened and what information may have been affected. The investigation determined that an employee uploaded a file containing limited member information to a public-facing website that was publicly accessible between April 23, 2018, and July 20, 2018. After thorough investigation, we are unable to determine if protected health information was accessed, and are unaware of any actual or attempted misuse of this information. In an abundance of caution, we are notifying potentially affected members, and offering these members access to 24 months of free identity protection services.

The investigation confirmed the information present on the website included the following information related to certain members: member name, date of birth, diagnosis codes, provider information, and other information used for claim processing purposes (e.g., claim number, referral number, and service dates). This incident did not involve any social security numbers, financial information or credit information.

Information privacy and security are among our highest priorities. AmeriHealth has strict security measures in place to protect information in its care. Upon learning of this incident, AmeriHealth quickly took steps to ensure the file was permanently removed from the website. We reviewed company policies and procedures and implemented additional technical controls to help prevent future incidents of this kind. We also ensured that the appropriate action was taken with the employee responsible for uploading the subject file.

AmeriHealth established a dedicated assistance line for potentially affected individuals to contact with questions or concerns regarding this incident. For additional information, please call 855-250-7810 (toll free), Monday through Saturday, 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m., EST. Hearing-impaired TTY users may call 711 to receive assistance free of charge. In addition to enrolling the monitoring services, those who are interested in learning more about protecting against identity theft and fraud can review the information below.

Monitor Your Accounts. You may take action to protect against possible identity theft or financial loss, should you feel it is appropriate to do so. We encourage you to remain vigilant against incidents of identity theft and fraud, to review your bank account statements, credit or debit card statements, and health insurance policy statements, and to monitor your credit reports and explanation of benefits forms for suspicious activity. Report all suspicious or fraudulent medical charges to AmeriHealth by calling 1-866-282-2707.

Credit Reports. Under U.S. law, you are entitled to one free credit report annually from each of the three major credit reporting bureaus. To order your free credit report, visit www.annualcreditreport.com or call, toll-free, 1-877-322-8228. You may also contact the three major credit bureaus directly to request a free copy of your credit report.

Fraud Alerts. At no charge, you can also have these credit bureaus place a "fraud alert" on your file that alerts creditors to take additional steps to verify your identity prior to granting credit in your name. Note, however, that because it tells creditors to follow certain procedures to protect you, it may also delay your ability to obtain credit while the agency verifies your identity. As soon as one credit bureau confirms your fraud alert, the others are notified to place fraud alerts on your file. Should you wish to place a fraud alert, or should you have any questions regarding your credit report, please contact any one of the agencies listed below.

Security Freeze. You may also place a security freeze on your credit reports. A security freeze prohibits a credit bureau from releasing any information from a consumer's credit report without the consumer's written authorization. However, please be advised that placing a security freeze on your credit report may delay, interfere with, or prevent the timely approval of any requests you make for new loans, credit mortgages, employment, housing, or other services. If you have been a victim of identity theft, and you provide the credit bureau with a valid police report, it cannot charge you to place, lift, or remove a security freeze. In all other cases, a credit bureau may charge you a fee (typically $5 to $15 each) to place, temporarily lift, or permanently remove a security freeze. You will need to place a security freeze separately with each of the three major credit bureaus listed above if you wish to place a freeze on all of your credit files.

Additional Information. You can further educate yourself regarding identity theft, and the steps you can take to protect yourself, by contacting your state Attorney General or the Federal Trade Commission. The Federal Trade Commission also encourages those who discover that their information has been misused to file a complaint with them. The Federal Trade Commission can be reached at: 600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20580; www.ftc.gov/idtheft; 1-877-ID-THEFT (1-877-438-4338); and TTY: 1-866-653-4261. Instances of known or suspected identity theft should be reported to law enforcement, your Attorney General, and the FTC. You can also further educate yourself about placing a fraud alert or security freeze on your credit file by contacting the FTC or your state's Attorney General.
